The DAX benchmark suite was expanded last month with new indices that cover composite size segments of the German equity market.

The DAX® All Cap, DAX® LargeMid Cap and DAX® MidSmall Cap offer investors one-stop exposure to combined large-, mid- and small-capitalization universes of stocks, adding to existing benchmarks such as DAX®, MDAX® and SDAX®. Figure 1 maps the coverage of the entire DAX benchmarks family.

"The new indices complete the DAX index landscape and expand the possibilities to construct portfolios and strategies in the German equity market, with the tested methodology and transparency that have made DAX the go-to market reference since 1988," said Veronika Kylburg, Head of Global Benchmarks DAX, STOXX.

Benchmark indices

Key points

Stocks jumped the most in 1½ years in May after the US and China agreed to pause import tariffs as both nations negotiate a reduction in trade costs.

The STOXX® Global 1800 index jumped 6% in dollars last month, including dividends, erasing this year's losses. It was the steepest monthly advance for the benchmark since November 2023. The index added 6.1% in euros.

The Eurozone's EURO STOXX 50® climbed 5.4% in euros in May and the pan-European STOXX Europe 600 rose 5%. The STOXX® North America 600 added 6.5% in dollars and the STOXX USA 500 advanced 6.6%. The STOXX® Asia/Pacific 600 jumped 4.2% in dollars.

World Equity indices

Key points

The STOXX® World AC added 5.8% last month when measured in US dollars and including dividends. The STOXX® Developed World climbed 6% and the STOXX® Emerging Markets gained 4.6%.

The STOXX® World Equity indices are a modular suite that allows investors to flexibly build portfolios covering a broad and liquid universe of markets. Introduced in 2022, the STOXX World Equity indices comprise STOXX's largest pool of markets and stocks to date. With turnover and market-capitalization filters in the stock selection to ensure they are tradable and representative, the indices track the performance of large-, mid- and small-cap stocks from a full range of developed and emerging markets, as well as derived sector strategies.

There are two defining features of the STOXX World Equity indices: their exhaustive scope and their modularity. The suite can be used as the basis to create highly targeted solutions in the three focus areas of sustainability, factors and thematic.

DAX indices

Key points

Germany's DAX family is led by DAX®, the blue-chip benchmark. MDAX® and SDAX® gauge, respectively, the performance of the country's mid- and small-caps. TecDAX® tracks German technology companies. HDAX® groups all equities that belong to either DAX, MDAX or TecDAX.

All of the suite's indices had a positive return in the month that ended.

ESG-X indices

Key points

The STOXX® Global 1800 ESG-X underperformed its benchmark only slightly in May.

The STOXX ESG-X indices are versions of traditional, market capitalization-weighted benchmarks that observe standard responsible exclusions. They incorporate basic norm- and product-based exclusion criteria to comply with ESG principles. Companies are excluded based on ISS Sustainability's determination of non-compliance with their Global Standards Screening assessment or if they have a 'severe' ESG risk rating from the data provider. Companies involved in controversial weapons, small arms, military contracting, unconventional oil and gas, tobacco, thermal coal (extraction or use for power generation), civilian firearms and military contracting are also removed.

ESG and Sustainability indices

Key points

Among the STOXX ESG and Sustainability indices, the EURO STOXX 50® ESG index performed in line with its benchmark last month.

The STOXX® Global ESG Select KPIs index, meanwhile, lagged the STOXX Global 1800 by 33 basis points. The STOXX ESG Select KPIs indices offer a broad market exposure that is tilted towards companies that score better with respect to a small set of environmental, social, and governance key performance indicators.

SRI indices

Key points

The STOXX® Global 1800 SRI index trailed its benchmark by 288 basis points last month.

The STOXX® SRI \(Socially Responsible Investing\) indices apply a set of involvement, carbon emission intensity and compliance screens, and additionally track the best ESG performers in each industry group within a selection of STOXX benchmarks.

Net Zero Transition indices

Key points

The ISS STOXX® Developed World Net Zero Transition added 5.5% in dollars last month.

The ISS STOXX Net Zero Transition indices are a next-generation, optimized set focused on net-zero targets, real-world transition-aligned metrics, and encompassing of all industries included in the parent universe.

The suite is aligned with net-zero frameworks developed by investor groups in the financial sector, and is designed to encourage stewardship and keep the expected tracking error below 1%.

Climate indices – Climate Transition Benchmark indices

Key points

The STOXX® Global 1800 CTB underperformed its benchmark last month.

The STOXX Climate Transition Benchmark indices \(CTBs\) are based on liquid securities from a selection of STOXX Benchmark indices and follow the EU Climate Transition Benchmark \(EU CTB\) requirements outlined by the European Commission's Regulation (EU) 2020/1818, supplementing Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 of the European Parliament and of the Council on climate benchmarks. Those requirements are designed such that the resulting CTB portfolio is on a decarbonization trajectory.

STOXX has partnered with Sustainalytics for datasets relating to their Global Standards Screening and controversial weapons, and with ISS ESG for climate-related data such as Scope 1-3 emissions, science-based climate targets and others.

Climate Indices – Paris-Aligned Benchmark indices

Key points

The STOXX® Global 1800 PAB also underperformed its benchmark in May.

The STOXX Paris-Aligned Benchmark indices \(PABs\) are based on liquid securities from a selection of STOXX Benchmark indices and follow the EU Paris-aligned Benchmark \(EU PAB\) requirements outlined by the European Commission's Regulation (EU) 2020/1818, supplementing Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 of the European Parliament and of the Council on climate benchmarks.

Those requirements are designed such that the resulting PAB portfolio's greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions are aligned with the long-term global warming target of the Paris Climate Agreement. The indices incorporate stringent carbon limitations in the selection of holdings, in line with global commitments to work towards keeping global warming between 1.5°C and 2°C above pre-industrial levels.

As with the CTB indices, STOXX has partnered with Sustainalytics for exclusions datasets, and with ISS ESG for climate-related data, science-based climate targets and others.

Biodiversity indices

Key points

The ISS STOXX® Biodiversity indices allow investors to take a comprehensive approach to the challenges, risks and opportunities from the degradation of our natural ecosystems and growing efforts to protect them.

The indices exclude companies involved in activities that are controversial or cause harm to biodiversity, select securities with less negative impact on ecosystems and those contributing positively to relevant UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). They also reduce the portfolio's carbon emissions.

A key component of the ISS STOXX Biodiversity framework is the Potentially Disappeared Fraction of Species (PDF), an output of ISS ESG's Biodiversity Impact Assessment Tool. PDF seeks to measure how corporates affect our natural world by considering a set of environmental pressures on species and habitats across the entire value chain and different geographical locations.

Factor indices

Key points

The STOXX Factor indices offer robust factor definitions and targeted factor exposures, and ensure the tradability of component stocks. They employ the institutionally tested analytics of Axioma Factor Risk Models.

On a global basis, Momentum led gains last month and it's now the leading signal for 2025, followed by Multi-factor.

Industry Neutral Factor indices

Key points

The STOXX Industry Neutral Single and Multi-Factor indices aim to harvest the risk premia of several academically validated style factors — Value, Momentum, Quality, Size and Low Risk — within each ICB industry.

The indices rely on Axioma's proven factor models and keep the same industry allocation as the respective benchmarks, helping remove unintended industry exposures and enabling access to the pure return of the factor.

Minimum Variance indices

Key points

Minimum variance strategies underperformed last month.

The STOXX Minimum Variance indices come in two versions. A constrained version has similar exposure to its market-capitalization-weighted benchmark but with lower risk. The unconstrained version, on the other hand, has more freedom to fulfill its minimum variance mandate within the same universe of stocks.

Volatility indices

Key points

European equity volatility fell in May, as measured by the VSTOXX® index and the VDAX-New®. The EURO STOXX 50® Volatility of Volatility \(V-VSTOXX\) index also eased.

The VSTOXX and VDAX measure the implied volatility of EURO STOXX 50 index and DAX index options traded on Eurex, respectively, across their entire expiration curve. The V-VSTOXX measures the implied volatility of options on VSTOXX futures traded on Eurex, hence reflecting expectations regarding the volatility of volatility. All three are significantly lower than their March 2020 peaks. The VSTOXX, for example, rose to 86 in March 2020.
